Norwich

One of the most popular cathedral cities in Britain, Norwich has it all, with beautiful medieval streets, two magnificent Cathedral's, a unique shopping destination with its large pedestrian areas, quirky, independent shops, six day open-air market and spacious modern shopping malls, food fit for royalty. ultra-modern facilities, museums galore and so much more to see and do you will need more than a day to see just some of the sights this city has to offer. www.visitnorwich.co.uk

Famous for the delicious crabs which are caught and cooked daily, this popular seaside resort has a lot to offer visitors all year round. The Pier is ideal for fishing and at the end of the pier is the Pavilion Theatre, renowned for it's seaside special's during the summer months and year round popular shows and entertainment for all ages. The magnificent Medieval church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul in the town centre has the tallest tower in the County and can be climbed in return for a small upkeep fee. At the top fantastic views are available along the North Norfolk Coast and out to sea where the beneath the waves lies the sea claimed village of Shipden.

Sheringham

The jewel on the Norfolk Coast, this popular one time fishing village now caters for the more frequent visitor than the shoals of herring which came in the past. It still retains the fishing village feel but with the modern attractions for year round visitors.

The Poppy Line steam Railway links the town to Weybourne and Holt and offers through tickets from most National Express East Anglia stations. The little Theatre in station Road is a must see attraction with a variety of shows for all the family and offers free tea and coffee to visitors showing a Bittern Line ticket at the Hub café in the foyer. Many other attractions in and around Sheringham, offer discounts to Bittern Line train ticket holders
